WinSport's ski and snowboard hill to remain closed through Thursday

CALGARY, Alta. – With the mercury and windchills still in the bone-chilling zone, WinSport announced today that it has extended the closure of the ski and snowboard hill at Canada Olympic Park until at least Thursday.

A decision on Friday's opening of the ski and snowboard hill will be made Wednesday morning.

With changing weather conditions, guests are advised to visit winsport.ca for the latest updates.

About WinSport

*The Calgary Olympic Development Association, which operates as WinSport, is a not-for-profit community-based organization that owns and operates Canada Olympic Park. Our vision is to be a world-leading centre for athletic development. We inspire human potential through the spirit of sport by introducing people to winter and mountain sports, helping them develop their skills and thereby igniting a passion for sport and lifelong learning. WinSport does not receive any direct government funding for our operations and we support our purpose by building on the legacy of the 1988 Winter Olympic Games and by delivering exceptional value and experiences to our guests.
