WinSport's Servus Tube Park opens Saturday for the season with new parking lot and new entrance

CALGARY – More winter fun is returning to WinSport this Saturday with the opening of the Servus Tube Park, welcoming families and thrill-seekers for another season of snowy excitement.

The Tube Park will be open through Sunday, March 29, weather permitting.

Featuring eight dedicated tubing lanes, the Servus Tube Park offers fast-paced, family-friendly fun for all ages—no experience required. Guests simply grab a tube, ride the magic carpet to the top, and enjoy the thrill of the ride down.

This season also introduces a new parking lot and a new, dedicated entrance, making visits more convenient and accessible than ever. The Servus Tube Park is now accessed via Piita Rise SW off Na'a Drive. The improved arrival experience allows guests to park closer to the action and enjoy a smoother, more welcoming entry into the Servus Tube Park area—helping families spend less time navigating and more time playing.

"Opening the Servus Tube Park is one of our favourite milestones of the winter season," said Dale Oviatt, Director of Marketing and Communications. "With eight lanes of tubing and improved access through our new parking and entrance areas, we're excited to make winter fun easier and more enjoyable for everyone."

The Servus Tube Park is a popular winter destination for families, friends, visitors, and corporate clients looking to experience winter in a fun, low-barrier way. All sessions include tubes and access to the conveyor lift. Helmets are not mandatory but are strongly recommended.

Tickets are just $25 per person. Discounted Servus Nights, on select Fridays starting in January, also provide the opportunity for reduced ticket prices for two evening sessions. Guests are encouraged to book their session online at winsport.ca
