WinSport's Canada Olympic Park offers half-price hill tickets for final weekend

Calgary – WinSport is offering the perfect end to the 2012-13 winter season this weekend at Canada Olympic Park – half-price hill tickets and great spring conditions.

Skiers and snowboarders can enjoy a spring fling on Saturday and Sunday, with all four-hour and full-day hill tickets priced at 50% off the regular price. The snow began falling again Thursday morning, reminding Calgarians that winter hasn't gone away and there's still plenty of good snow to enjoy carving some turns at COP.

It's also a great time for first-timers to get out and learn, with WinSport's Discover ski and snowboard lessons, which include equipment rentals, a hill ticket and a 90-minute lesson, available for just $39.

The park is closed to skiers and snowboarders through Friday this week, but will open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. Season-ending discounts are available throughout the retail store and in the food court.

Sunday is also the final day to take advantage of WinSport's Extreme Early Bird sale, with savings of more than 20 per cent on 2013-14 season passes. Purchasing an Extreme Early Bird pass also provides free skiing or snowboarding for the final two days of this season.
