WinSport's Canada Olympic Park opens up Legacy Lift, more terrain

Calgary, Alta. – Skiers and snowboarders can carve some new terrain at WinSport's Canada Olympic Park, with the opening Friday of the Legacy Chairlift – and the park's official opening weekend for the 2013-14 season.

The park opened last weekend on limited terrain, serviced by the Gold and Silver Carpets in the Discovery Park. Both carpets will remain open, along with the Legacy lift, which will provide skiers and riders the opportunity to enjoy the main run down the centre of the hill. Several features, including rails, will also remain in place on the east side of the park.

To celebrate the start of the season, WinSport is offering discounted lift tickets this weekend only, Friday through Sunday, with adult tickets priced at $30, student/teen/junior are $24 and children are $10. The rental shop, retail shop and food court will also be open. Lessons are available by visiting Guest Services or by calling 403-247-5452.

More terrain and the '88 Express chairlift are expected to open as snowmaking and weather permit. Visitors are reminded that snowmaking may take place during business hours as temperatures allow.

The park will be open weekdays, starting Friday, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., and on weekends from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Special holiday hours will be in effect from Dec. 21, 2013 to Jan. 5, 2014. Click here or visit winsport.ca for latest hill updates.
