Statement from WinSport President and CEO Barry Heck

I want to once again offer my thoughts and prayers to all of the families involved in yesterday's tragedy.

The loss of Jordan and Evan Caldwell is being felt by many in the Calgary community, including our team here at WinSport, where the two young men worked as Hill Ambassadors during last winter's season.

We have sought out support for our affected team members to help them through this very difficult time.

We will continue to work with the Calgary police in their investigation, which is running concurrently with our own internal investigation.

We have set up two memorials for those wanting to pay their respects. The two sites can be accessed during park hours at the following locations:

- Top of the hill at the eastern edge of the start house deck
- 88 Olympic plaque at the top of the stairs leading from the Frank King Day Lodge parking lot to the bobsleigh track

Once again, my heart goes out to everyone involved in this tragic event.
