Canada Olympic Park Opens Trails for Evening Riding this Week

Making up lost time for wet spring

Calgary, AB – To help compensate for Mother Nature’s lack of cooperation this past spring, Canada Olympic Park (COP) is respectfully extending its Mud Bogger season hours an extra couple nights this Wednesday and Thursday to help riders make up for lost time!

Being an outdoor facility, COP is at the mercy of the weather. When the Park receives rain, the clay and dirt on the trails become very slippery creating a safety hazard to riders. Since the Park had to close a few days this past spring, extending the hours of operation made sense.

What: Evening Riding at COP this Week

When: Wednesday & Thursday (June 22/23, 2011)
4:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Where: Canada Olympic Park
88 Canada Olympic Road S.W.

Summer hours take effect July 1, allowing access to the Park seven days a week.
